

HERE AND THERE IN WHIRL OF PLEASURE

Everything now is knitting. Even men have taken to knitting for helping the soldiers boys at the front. Much warm winter clothing will be needed at the front, and people know that knitted goods are the warmest and most comfortable. Indeed, many elders are reminded of "grandmothers' days" when they used to hold balls of yarn and card wool, by the present activity on the part of most everyone for knitting.

Judge and Mrs. R. A. Gunnison entertained a few of their friends at dinner Friday evening in honor of Mrs. Talbot, who was visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Townsend. Their guests were Mrs. Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Townsend, and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Mathews.

CHISANA CAMP HAS BEEN BUSY ALL THE SEASON

Dawson Man Finds Conditions Favorable in Onetime Famous Camp.

DAWSON, Sept. 28. — The first news received from the distant Chisana mining camp is brought by Ernest Schink, who has just returned after traveling about 2,000 miles going there and returning. He left here July 21, and walked 375 miles going there and returning. He has covered.

Schink left Dawson via river steamer to Coffee creek, landing on the White river. He proceeded through Scorial Pass to the Chisana, thence he went over the trail to McCarthy, via rail to Cordova, and by steamer and rail from Cordova back to Dawson, via Skagway.

Speaking to the Dawson News Mr. Schink said:

"Practically all the claims on the best creeks of the Chisana district are kept alive, and a good many are being worked steadily. All the owners now remaining there are making good returns. The 'Big Four,' comprising Billy James and Nels Nelson, the discoverers, and their partners, Billy Johnson and Mrs. Wales are working their ground with hydraulics, and are pulling up steadily and soon will be to the good.

"The following is a list of the claims in the camp:

"On Big Eldorado — On claim No. 3, McCake, Davis and Brilling; on Nos. 2 and 7, Shorty Broggin. On Little Eldorado — On claim No. 2, Carl Whittam. On Skookum gulch — D. T. Sargent.

"On Gold Run creek — No. 1 above discovery, James McDonald formerly known as 'Windy Jim' of Dawson, has it rich. On No. 3 Ketchum and son. McDonald has panned $5 in two hours.

"Bonanza creek — On No. 11, A. T. Wright; on No. 10, E. McMullen and Nelson; Nos. 8 and 9, the Big Four; No. 7 fraction, W. E. McKinny; No. 7, creek, F. W. Best and Don Green; Nos. 4, 5 and 6, Big Four, hydraulicking; No. 3, Best and Green; No. 2, Andy Taylor and Joe McLellan; No. 2, bench off Bonanza, on old channel, Judge McGittigen and R. K. Hoover, getting $1.80 to $2.00.

"The total output of the camp this season is fair, and the boys all may be said to be doing well. C. A. Simmons has the only general store in the camp. Supplies go in from McCarthy's.

"Claude James is working with his brother, Billy James. Mrs. Wales is the cook for the camp.

"The copper at the head of White looks fine, but it cannot be gotten out for want of a railway.

"It is too bad the copper of that region cannot be gotten to market. It is only 80 miles or so to the Copper River railway. The country is so high there is no vegetation, and the copper is visible on many of the hillsides and creeks. The great glaciers did the prospecting."

against war, also are attempting to suppress the discussion of war issues. He said they are attempting to intimidate the people by invading their homes unlawfully and throwing them into jail. He quoted from the Mexican war speeches of Abraham Lincoln, Henry Clay, Daniel Webster and Charles Sumner to show that Congressmen have the right to assail the government's policy in time of war.

PLAN CAMPAIGN FOR SALE OF LIBERTY BONDS

Plans for the inauguration of a strenuous campaign for the sale of Liberty Loan Bonds are being formulated by the Juneau Women's Club. Members of the club have taken the matter up with Mayor Emory Valentine, and he has promised his active assistance in the same. Tentative plans call for a half holiday about October 16th, and it has been suggested that there be a parade and a mass meeting to be addressed by various citizens. The plans contemplate that various organizations will be asked to co-operate in the campaign, and committees will be named to boost the sale of bonds.

SHOOTERS WILL TURN CARPENTERS FOR DAY

All members of the Juneau Shotgun and Rifle Club are earnestly requested to turn out on Sunday morning and work on the new club house which is being erected in Last Chance Basin. All those who appear are requested to bring their luncheon and some prepared to remain all day. It is the plan of the officers of the club to finish their hand some club building tomorrow, if possible, and if enough workmen turn out, it will be finished.
